TIME FLIES ON EAGLE WINGS

Chapter I

As ninth graders the members of our class started their educational journey divided. Part of the class was at Junior High; the remainder was at Senior High. However, despite the fact that the class was divided, the two groups had a very nice year and each class elected its own officers.

Junior High officers were: President—Gray Gallaher; Vice-president—Thelma Joseph; Secretary—Buster Smith; Treasurer—Arnold Snead; Sergeant-at-Arms—Blaine Tanner.

Senior High officers were: President—Ann Ware; Vice-president—Hettie Hice; Secretary—Marjorie Lawson; Treasurer—Laird Legg.

In the spring the members of the Senior High ninth grade invited the students of the same class at Junior High to their barn dance, where a good time was had by all.

To conclude the year the Junior High students were graduated, looking forward to being Sophomores in W. W. H. S.

Chapter II

There was a happy reunion in our Sophomore year. Our class was reunited, making a large number of students. We soon elected officers: President—Gray Gallaher; Vice-president—Buster Smith; Secretary—Laird Legg; Treasurer—Robert Murray. Miss Stanley was elected class sponsor.

Our class was outstanding on the Honor Roll and several of our classmates had leading roles in the annual minstrel and other activities. The most outstanding social event of the year was the Colonial Ball held Feb. 20, 1937. The guests were received by Gray Gallaher as George Washington, and Harriet Wood as Martha Washington. Every one had a delightful evening. The color motif was blue and silver.

With these fond memories we closed our Sophomore year.

Chapter III

Being sophisticated Juniors was very difficult at first. We were all a year older and naturally soon began to act more serious and mature.

Our class officers this year were: President—Gray Gallaher; Vice-President—Buster Smith; Secretary—Laird Legg; Treasurer—Mary Caperton Banks; Sgt.-at-Arms—Blaine Tanner.

A play was not presented by the Junior Class this year but a style show with boys as models was a very entertaining substitute.

Best of wishes to one of the best. Peggy

To end our activities with a grand climax the class gave the Junior-Senior Prom in a unique manner. The prom was called the "Swingtime Prom", and certainly every detail was carried out in Swingtime.

CHAPTER IV

At long last we were dignified Seniors. We were glad and at the same time a little regretful. Since this was our last year at Woodrow Wilson it made us realize what a grand school it is.

Our class officers were practically the same as in our Junior year: President—Gray Gallaher (for the fourth consecutive year); Vice-president—Everette Gwinn; Secretary—Laird Legg; Treasurer—Mary Caperton Banks; Sergeant-at-Arms—Blaine Tanner.

The football party was a great success just as our football season was.

Our Senior Play and Minstrel were well received. The casts were excellently selected and everyone gave an outstanding performance in both events.

As Seniors we were the guests of the Juniors at the annual Prom. The crowning of the beautiful May Queen was the highlight of the evening. The Prom was very successful and a fitting climax to our social activities in W. W. H. S.

On Kid Day all the "dignified" Seniors were allowed to act natural. W. W. H. S. was just one big playground. Prizes were given for the best dressed boy and girl.

Suddenly, our very happy years at W. W. H. S. were at an end. We all felt solemn and a little sad on graduation night when we realized that our high school days were actually over.

May each Senior's journey through life be as happy as his educational journey.

Delores,
Guess you will remember me with the sorriest sentiments -- and be justified! I'm just the crazy girl that writes funny phrases about life + death - that rymes and mean nothing. Next year we will be seniors -- our last year.

THE MARCHING SONG OF THE FLYING EAGLES

Let's give a cheer for Beckley High,
The Eagles are out to do or die,
Let's make the Echoes ring,
We never give up; we never give in;
We battle along until we win;
So let us sing, sing, sing.
Now why should we fear a mighty foe?
We do our best and lay them low
To gain the victor's crown.
So set them up for the Eagle Crew,
A band that is hardy, and tried, and true
And ready for renown.
You can't beat the Flying Eagles;
You can't beat that Beckley team;
The Maroon and White will fight, fight, fight
And Beckley will reign supreme.
You can't beat that Beckley spirit
And we're out to win today,
So Hail, Hail, Hail, we'll never fail
Our Eagles are on their way.
So here's to our Beckley High School,
The fairest in all the land.
We'll win the game
And spread the fame
Of Beckley High School's
Blessed name and
Our Flying Eagle Band.
