In front of the desks

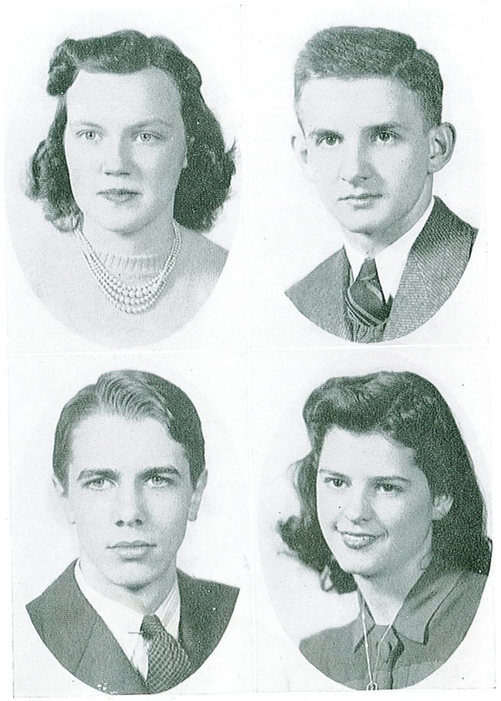
Secretary ..... Peggy Yoak

President ..... Percy Catlett

Vice President ..... Edwin Higgins

Treasurer ..... Jean Porter

OFFICERS



S E N I O R S

Thomas Campbell Bibb
"Milkweed"
He sits high in all people's hearts.

Augusta Walker Norris
"Gussie"
She is what has never been before, woman and friend.

Francis Leon Neal
There's always a warm spot in our hearts for him.

Lydia Fontaine Sessions
"Diddie"
Outstanding in her originality.

Ann Marie Kleiman
Hair that shines like the sun.

Ulmer Grant Sisson
Knowledge and I have never met.

Dorothy Jean Porter
Endowed with all the woman's arts that please.

Orell Adair Phillips, Jr.
"Slimey"
He was a gentleman from sole to crown.

E. Carl Meadows, Jr.
Not too serious, not too gay, but a rare good fellow.

Gene Elizabeth Mann
'Twere death to live without him.

Edwin Reese Higgins
A gentleman through and through, clean favored and imperially slim.

Mary Virginia Foster
"Waterboy"
Strange that she can keep with ease a pace so free and fleet.

S E N I O R S

Eva Parks
"Evie"
Peppy and very vivacious.

Joseph Wilbur Davis, Jr.
"Joe"
A little nonsense now and then is relished by the best of men.

Barbara Emmons
"Bobby"
Cute with a contagious laugh and smile.

Ben Carbo
He always comes up smiling.

William Austin Snead
"Bill"
A way with the women.

Hattie Lee Stinson
Her heart, like the moon, is always changing, but there's always a man in it.

Robert Gorden Richmond
"Bobby"
He'll never die of overwork; he doesn't believe in it.

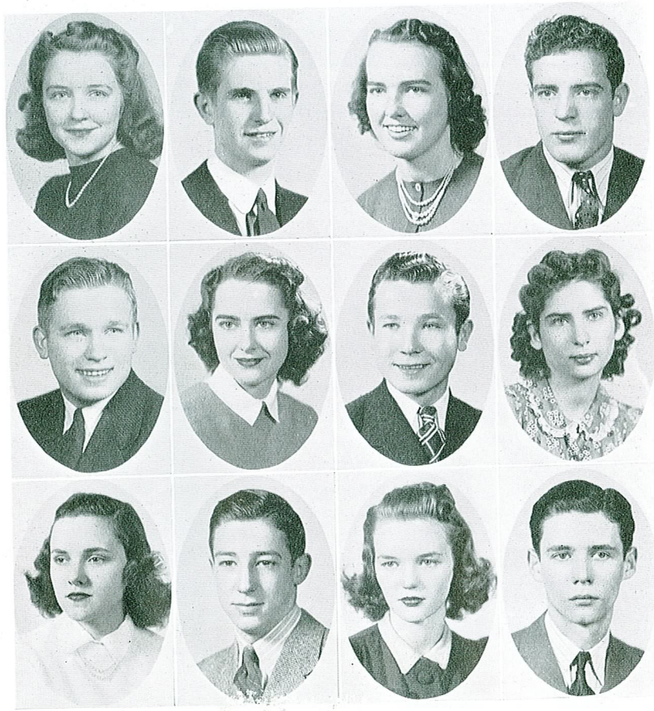
Irene Delores Irwin
Her lot seems light, her heart seems gay.

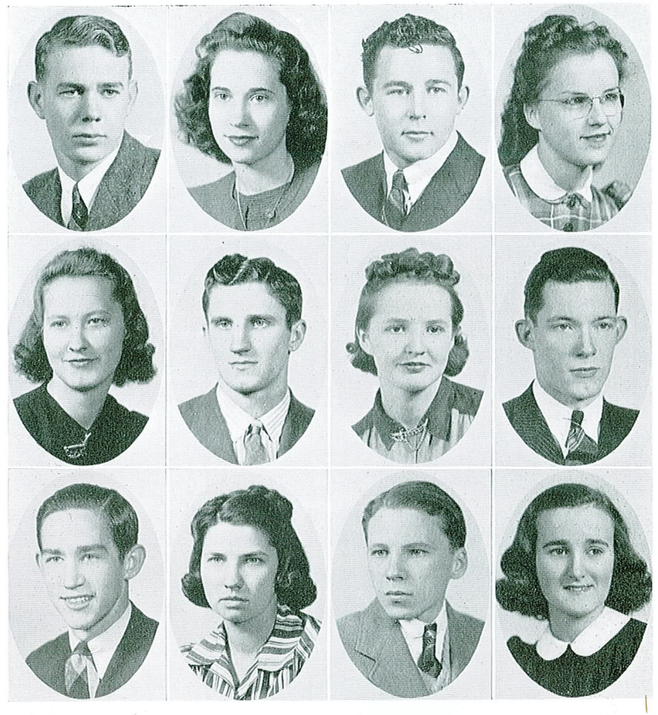
Margaret Sue Mabe
Hark! Hark! A joke.

Edward Pownall Stansbury
"Shan"
A mischievous piece of humanity.

Marilyn Victoria Chambers
Two's company, three's a crowd.

Nathaniel Perry Grogan
Easy come, easy go.





Emmette Jay Hurt
No chance? Why there's nothing but chance!

Margaret Ruth Huffman
"Mikie"
Jolly and full of fun.

Eddie Suptic
A mind at peace with all.

Emma Louise Graveley
Who says you can't combine intelligence with fun and not have an amiable miss?

Carolyn Delores Klaus
"Lyn"
Light of step and heart is she.

Arnold Oliver Yost
W.W.H.S. will sorely miss him and his spectacular playing.

Christine Lares
"Tiny"
A laugh is worth a thousand tears in any market.

Joseph Frank Bellamy
Achievement takes work.

Benjamin M. Wallace
"Bennie"
Work and I have never met.

Hazel Mae Wagner
Common sense is not so common.

Alfred Black Bazzarre
Deeds are better things than words.

Merle Evelyn Williams
A mind and hand work.

S E N I O R S

Eunice Claire Haddad
Born for success, she seems.

John Nichovitch
"Mad Russian"
What he lacks in height is made up in ability.

Mary Frances Bird
"Chicken"
To know her is to love her.

Emile Jacob Hodel
The mildest manner and the gentlest heart.

Carl Lunceford Callaway
All's right with the world.

Charlotte Louise Mason
A girl people like to know.

Irwin Greco
He's not half as bad as he would have us believe.

Mildred Lucille Ballard
In quietness there are many charms.

Wanda Lucille Gwinn
Ask me no questions and I'll tell you no lies.

John Franklin Watkins, Jr.
He wears the smile that won't come off.

Mary Elizabeth Harrah
A joy to talk with and pleasant to think of.

Blaine Winnifred Lilly
Take care of the present, the future is yet to come.

S E N I O R S

S E N I O R S

James Christopher Beard
"Jimmie"
A happy heart makes a happy face.

Virginia Ann Casto
She sighs to many but loves but one.

Thomas Arnold Plumley
A friend in need is a friend indeed.

Elizabeth Lewis Trosper
"Betty"
Friendly and sincere.

Joan Cecilia Boray
"Bojay"
Temperamental but always ready to oblige.

Robert Clyde Prince, Jr.
"Ikey"
Dependable but shy.

Mary Frances O'Neal
"Peggy"
Sweet personality, full of rascality.

George Paris Davis, Jr.
Football? Oh yes.

Kirby Leon Surbaugh
He always remains the same.

Ruth Marie Foley
Not too short, not too tall, cute and sweet and loved by all.

Charlie Judson Burke
As a man thinketh in his heart so he is.

Geneva Odessa Beasley
A pair of brown eyes and a ready laugh—gifts of the Gods.

S E N I O R S

Betty Ann Butner
"Shorty"
A sweet disposition and always friendly.

Warren G. French
Quiet and reserved and particularly nice.

Mary Elizabeth Mulcay
She saw, she loved and she continued to love.

Donald Floyd Harvey
True to his duties always.

Paul Ernest Wiseman, Jr.
"Girls, aren't you envious of her?"

Betty Lee Evans
Blue eyes have caused the downfall of more than one man.

Jimmy George Bakalis
His limbs were cast in manly mold for hardy sports and contests bold.

La Vonne Corder
"Freckles"
Shy and reserved.

Edith Elouise Fitzgerald
I hear, yet say not much, but think the more.

Richard Young Morgan
Usually quiet and busy.

Ruth Sylvia Blevins
Truth and virtue are seen in her.

Donald Young
A cheerful smile for everyone.

Gene Gilkerson
A man of few words.

Ruby Lucille Harvey
Her ready smile and willing way make many friends.

Clinton Oscar Lively
My love goeth to one.

Jessie Lonie Beckingham
Eyes that show she really is a miss full of fun.

Margaret Ann Cook
"Cookie"
She is a girl that everybody likes, but she has that temper.

Mark Fara
A quitter never wins; a winner never quits.

Betty Jean Mabrey
She's young, brave and oh, so bright!

Toney Ernest Briguglia
I'm glad to be living, aren't you?

Ira Oscnton Holliday, Jr.
In everything one must consider the end.

Beulah Ann Lamb
With a smile on her lips and a twinkle in her eye.

Robert Edwin Ellison
"Oh bed, oh bed, thou art heaven on earth to the weary head."

Peggy Belle Ritter
Beauty with a smile; what more could you ask?

S E N I O R S

Jean Valentine Archer
Brains and a likeable way belong to her.

Houston Ray Gravely
Perhaps bold in thoughts but not in words.

Stella Alwilda Tester
Why not ask? That's the way to learn!

Lacy Elliot Meadows
He is a wise man—yet speaks little.

Joe Rodriquez
"Roscoe"
"Was there ever a heart that I couldn't melt?"

Helene Alyce Tonelli
"Red"
Refreshing as the morning; delightful as a breeze.

Dearl Richard Seelinger
Refer all athletic questions to me.

Betty Jo Hedrick
Her dark eyes suggest mystery and adventure.

Evelyn June Hall
Once you get to know her, she's "swell"!

James Wilson Berry
I am a part of all that I have met.

Yolande Lucille Adams
For she's just the quiet kind, whose nature never varies.

John McGill Lucado
"Jack"
Little, but much is contained therein.

S E N I O R S

S E N I O R S

Margaret Hodes
She quietly succeeds.

John Thomas Peyton
"Jack"
Here lies the promise of celestial worth.

Nellie Sue Farley
Ready, willing, and capable.

James Mack Ross
Tranquil and reserved.

Jessie Clarence Kinzer
In his red veins, how life does run!

Mrs. Jean Shrewsbury Wood
Thy modesty's a candle to thy merit.

William Ashley Teubert
It is well for one to know more than he says.

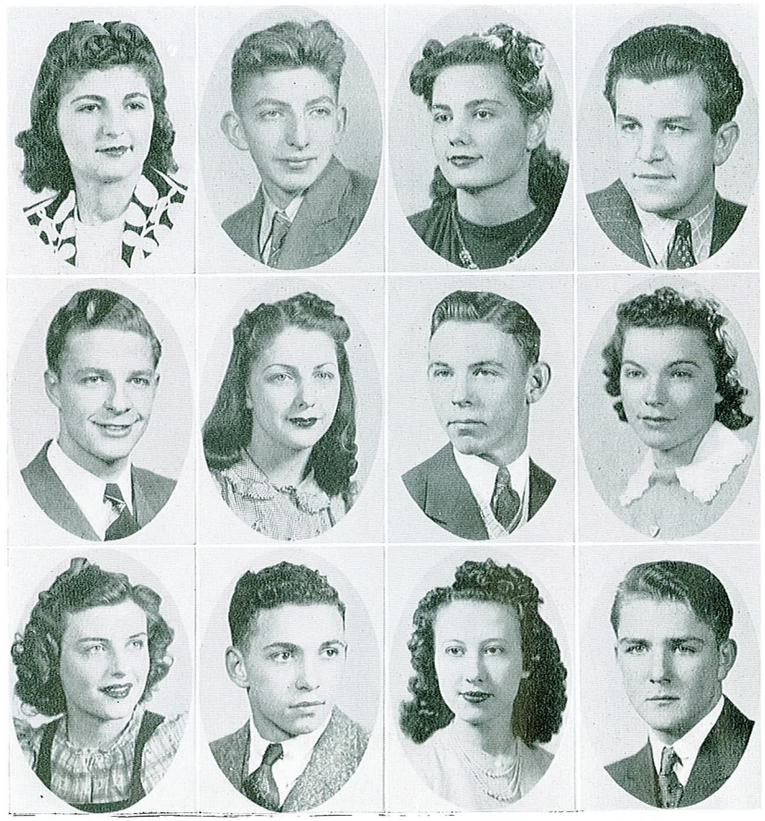
Doris Virginia Arnold
Full of life and gayety.

Lura Mae Evans
And she was exceedingly fair to behold.

Amelito Simmons
His great works do bespeak his character.

Doris Evelyn Maynor
I laugh and the world laughs with me.

Brady Winthon Lipscomb
Worry and I have never met.



S E N I O R S

Paul Randall Small
The world knows nothing of her greatest men.

Dorothy Nell McKinney
Not obtrusive, very retired, all the more to be desired.

Garrett Wriston Bragg
Do not dream noble things.

Hilda June Winner
Quiet in class but "powerful loud" in grades.

Boyd Davis Martin
His very foot has music in it.

Mae Elizabeth Meadows
She scorns not the opposite sex.

Clinton Elwyn Gwinn
Sincere and earnest in every way.

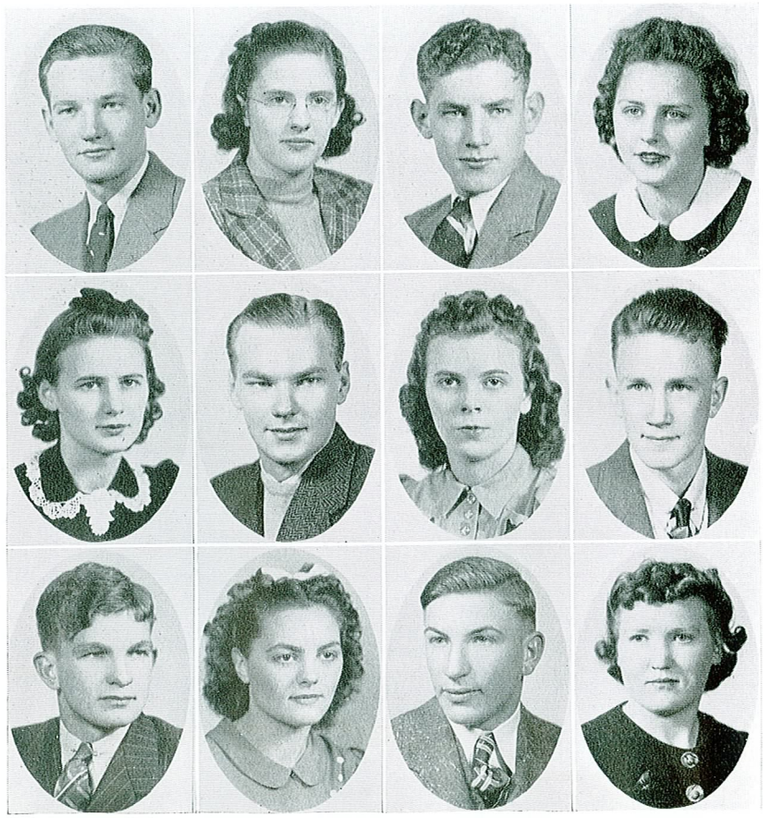
Nellie Maurine Godbey
An essential of the true woman is common sense.

Julius Magyar
A person worth knowing.

Pauline Ennis Carter
Never promise more than you can perform.

Howard Wendell Brown
Think not I am what I appear.

Mary Elizabeth Feazelle
"Laugh your way through life" — why not?



Harry Douglas Taylor
Gay and carefree he seems.

Virginia Trail
She has eyes for one only.

Robert Scott
Mischief and he go hand in hand.

Beatrice Alma Price
Her red hair gives no indication of mischief.

Beaulis Lively
He is only great who himself can command.

Eula Ardith Shrewsbury
Quiet as a mouse, she is.

Treva Woodrow Meadows
A lad who is refreshingly shy.

Dorothy Louise Harrold
Sober, steadfast and demure.

Kermit Jackson Vandall
A handful of common sense is worth a bushel of book learning.

Juanita Carnel Allison
She doesn't say much nor consider it necessary.

Ira Amburgey
He lets his own thoughts lead him.

Audra June Shaffer
A rare jewel of sincerity and sweetness.

S E N I O R S

Wanda Lee Lively
She owns a smile worth seeing.

Kenzie Elmer Cook
"Still water runs deep."

Edna Alice Little
Mostly quiet and unusually different.

Fred Coyle Holloway
He's right, square, and without care.

Leon Richard Operchuck
Much study is a weariness to the flesh.

Pauline Todd
"Oh! There's a man!"

Raymond Itier
He is a sport through and through.

Helen Faye Richmond
"Work before you play."

June Ethelen McGuire
Nice, but not noisy.

Hugh Jefferson Williams
He lives in another world.

Virginia Mae Hudson
"Ginnie"
Those ready smiles bring great results.

David Willis Zutant
Nothing can cover his high fame but heaven.

S E N I O R S

S E N I O R S

Herbert Lewis Kiser
"If you will only give me time."

Frances Hovanski
Her sweetness void of pride might hide her faults, if faults she had to hide.

William Jack Thompson
The boy we like to have around.

Altha Elizabeth Harris
My thoughts and I are of another realm.

Boyd Bland Edwards
Destiny commands that he shall become great.

Louise Ernestine Bivens
A lot of pride is seen in her.

Lynval David Martin
He would not with peremptory tone, assert the nose on his face his own.

Ruby Reba Aldridge
Her dark beauty shows well designed features.

Espy Mae Wilkerson
Her talents are of the more silent type.

Naseeb Rahall
"Oh, this learning, what an ordeal it is!"

Vona Belle Willis
"Men are so scarce nowadays."

Adrian Hansford DeHart
Anything but a quiet life.

S E N I O R S

Cora Pauline Belcher
You can accomplish things merely by listening.

Harold Hanks
Leave it to him, if you want it done right.

Janice Joyce Gadd
Wisdom is more precious than rubies.

Thomas Everett Smith
I would study, I would know.

Margery Lee Wiseman
Her voice is full of manners.

Bernard Freeman Moye, Jr.
Freeman is hard to beat when it comes to sportsmanship.

Jewel Mary Giampalo
It's better to be heard than seen.

Ira Everette Blake
So shy and modest.

Marie Jane Sims
So easy to get along with.

Samuel Ernest Kincaid, Jr.
A senior we'll not forget.

Juanita Jeanette McAdoo
Fair hair and a smile that pleases.

Carl Cam Johnston
"I'm a man of integrity and good standing."

Alvin Russel Hutcherson
Genteel in personage, conduct, and equipage.

Meredith Kestner
She's a real "pal" to her friends.

Andrew James Sheppe
The world's no better if we worry; Life's no longer if we hurry.

Evelyn Anne Thompson
Good deeds have their own reward.

Gene Graham Ferris
Just a jolly good sport.

Velma Arleen Wood
A dimple in her chin assures that she'll always win.

Franklin William Adams, Jr.
Not in the roll of common men.

Marceline Cassity
She always does her part.

Edward Michael Corey
He says, "Why should I worry? It will happen anyway!"

Stella June Robertson
Her knowledge wins our praise.

Denval Lee Stover
Listening pays dividends.

Mary Nagy
Lives there a Mary not winsome and fair?

S E N I O R S

Margaret Anne Yoak
"Peggy"
She has our admiration!

Norvell S. Lilly, Jr.
"N. S."
We boys just can't get along without certain girls.

Rose Mary Clark
Laugh and be merry for tomorrow you may not be so merry.

Percy James Catlett, Jr.
If jobs were wives, he would be the patriarch of polygamy.

Robert James Lamb
"Bob"
Why should life be all labor?

Evelyn Rio Lemon
Good humor is the health of the soul.

Harvey Christopher Dunlap
"Chris"
"It is better to wear out than to rust out."

Peggy Ann Evans
You're neat, pure, sweet, and fair.

Helen Seman
I may agree with your opinion because I have a great deal of my own.

Samuel Clyde Woods
Who started this idea of school, anyhow?

Polly Jo McCulloch
We're expecting great things from her.

Michael Judson Moore
"Mickey"
He was honest and bright and the teacher's delight.

S E N I O R S

S E N I O R S

George Edward Via, Jr.
There's such a rare debonair do-and-dare to him.

Audrey Lorraine Tucker
She usually knows what she wants.

Lauren Allen Gates
"L. A."
The girls' delight.

Violet Faye Lilly
Modesty becomes a girl.

Cora Ann Anderson
There is none under the sun like to her.

Dorsey Thrasher Keatley, Jr.
The worse use that can be made of success is to boast of it.

Evelyn Ann Farris
If all is fair in love and war, where do the brunettes come in?

Clarence McBride Doss, Jr.
The nicest kind of a cheerful person.

Irby Barney Brown
An odd mixture of everything.

Betty Ann Lilly
A girl of such delicate grace.

Edward Guy Graves, Jr.
Studying is all right, but it does get tiresome, don't you think?

Martha Mary Shultz
Men are such queer creatures — I like men.

S E N I O R S

Betty Jayne Withrow
Hands make the woman, or so it is with Betty.

Fred Kendall Allen
A man's worth is measured by his actions.

Aline Hope Martin
Patience is the best remedy for every trouble.

Malcolm Pickus
Melancholy, melancholy, I've no use for you, by golly!

Henry Mason Word
A boy who really accomplishes things.

Ann Margaret Olson
Gentle in manner, firm in reality.

William Gregg Elkin
"Billy"
Ambition and work lead to position.

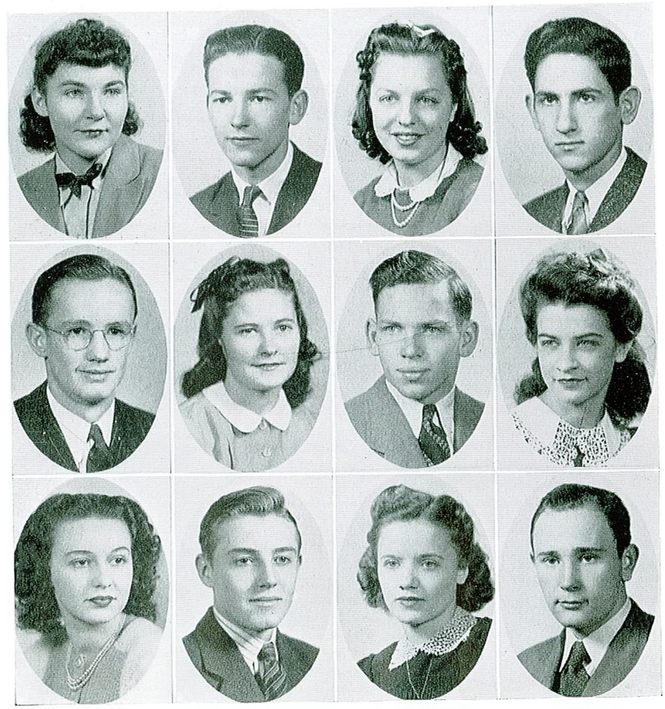
Anna Ferne Palmer
The light of midnight's starry heaven is in those radiant eyes.

Florence Evelyn Luther Blair
What is yours is mine and all mine is yours.

Jack Benjamin Jenkins
Better to deserve success than to have it.

Laurel Roles
Always thoughtful of others.

Albert George Gregory, Jr.
Nothing is difficult for a willing mind.



Doris Evelyn Wyatt
You do the talking — I'll listen.

Christina Margerine Mann
If silence is golden, speech is platinum.

Evelyn Ferguson
So warm, so genial.

Josephine Rodriquez
A lot of sense is contained within her dainty head.

Ora Wanda Lewis
A pleasing smile plus a likeable personality.

Evelyn Henrietta Bailey
I only ask for peace of mind.

Violet Elizabeth Deck
And the best of me is diligence.

Grace Louise Richards
Two's company when you're congenial.

Helen Betty Rogar
She has such a nice way about her.

Marietta Bailey
She is a woman who acts like a woman.

Mary Agnes McCormick
Tall women are admired, little ones are loved.

Geraldine D. Underwood
Not just another blond—she's different.

S E N I O R S

Elizabeth Thomson
Sing and the world sings with you.

Mary Jane Thomson
Efforts don't go by unseen.

Annie Thomson
The first step to greatness is honesty.

June Deane Maddy
Laughing eyes and a friendly smile.

Claudine Mae McMillan
She always speaks when spoken to.

Roberta Bragg Caldwell
She's a friend to depend on, we're all quite sure.

Erma Irene Wallace
Full of gentle brightness—her looks and language are.

Lillian Mae Haydon
Nice in every way.

Jane Lee Robertson
Her thoughts are her own.

Irene Wydo
A good friend and chum to have.

Mildred Marie Rice
Far above average when it comes to friendliness.

Christine Lillian Goins
A smile for all, a greeting glad seem to be her usual fad.

S E N I O R S

S E N I O R S

Elbert Franklin Vance
"Let's have a good time, people."

Sereda Agnes Stover
One vast, substantial smile.

George Griffith Burnette, Jr.
"Tad"
In arguing he owns his skill.

Mary Catherine Buckland
Blessed with a charm that's certain to please.

Ruby Nelle Bowles
She comes and goes in her quiet, sweet way.

Joseph Silvery Bumbak
"Joe"
There is always work for skilled hands.

Roxie Evelyn Ellison
Fairness, pluck, and patience in her race.

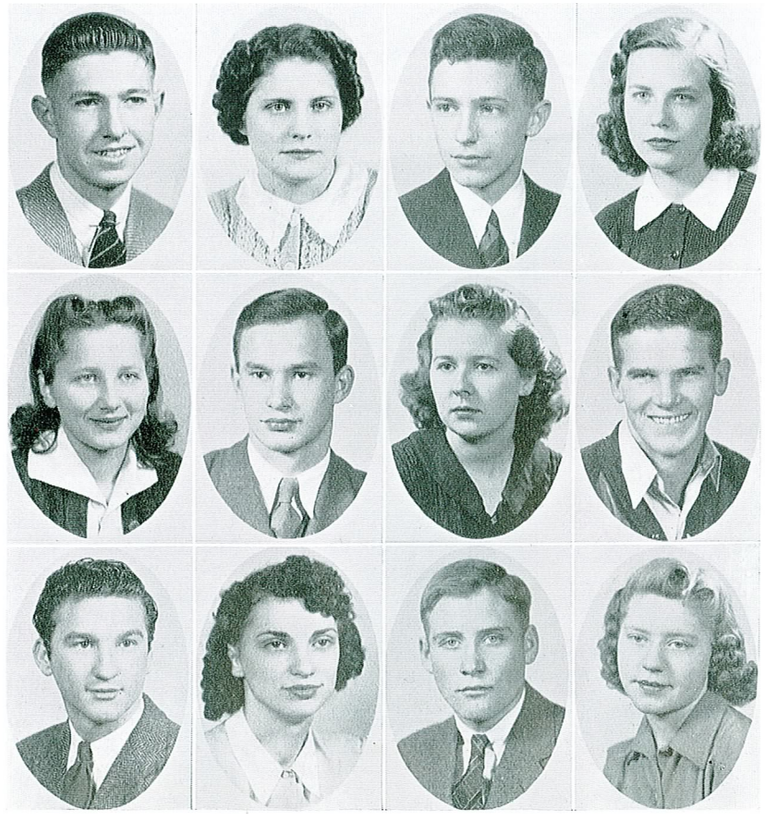
Jesse Ray Lilly
Why take the spotlight? I'll get it eventually!

Robert W. Andrews, Jr.
He sees not the shadow which faces the sun.

Irene Vivian Harvey
A girl nice to know.

Robert Melton Plummer, Jr.
Not a roughneck—merely full of energy.

Pauline Marylea Hall
It is much better to try and fail than not to try at all.



S E N I O R S

Mary Ruth Hicks
She always strives for the best.

Anice Analine Thompson
A mischievous twinkle can be seen in her eyes.

Mildred Maddline Christian
Such a friend we'd like to have.

Catherine Mae Hunter
The girl with a grand personality.

Lucille Fara
Soft voiced and well mannered.

Evelyn Pickett Aliff
Demure, fine and civil.

Mary Ellen Gilkeson
The pen is the tongue of the mind.

Angelina Reck
Sweetness, truth, and every grace are read distinctly in her face.

Beulah Katherine Doss
Her blond hair is never out of place.

Rose Carmen Cook
The secret of success is embracing every opportunity of seeking nobler ends.

Virginia Dare Smith
Why not have some fun? You're only young once, you know.

Vivian Arlena Nichols
She's pretty and sweet as well as modest.

Martin Leslie Edwards
He finds the good in everyone.

Edith Evelyn Via
She has her own ideas about things.

Campbell Walker
A person who will always remain a friend.

Edith Darling Halstead
A sincere and true friend.

Maxine Pennington
She sets no ban on rich or poor, but looks suspiciously on boys.

Herman Letcher Davis, Jr.
No human thing is of serious importance.

Helen Margaret Tozer
Words are precious things.

Samuel Mitchell Rahal
A bold badman.

Mack Alva Thompson
He walks alone with his thoughts.

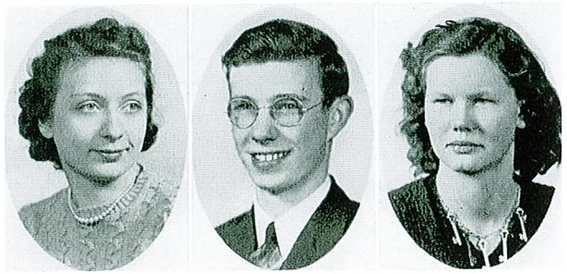
Mary Anna Huzoski
Courtesy is the crown of success.

John Howard Boland
His thoughts and his conduct are his own.

Margaret Marie Taylor
Gracious in manner and conduct.

S E N I O R S

S E N I O R S



Margaret Rose Prince

She never fails to see the jolly side of things.

Frederick Tracy Woodrum

Whom could we like better than him?

Georgia S. Thurbon

She's gifted with a likeable personality.

WOODROW WILSON HIGH SCHOOL CREED

I believe in the cooperation of all for the welfare of our school.

To work and to study; to be honest and generous;

To be willing to give as well as to take;

To besiege pettiness and self-indulgence;

To have self-confidence and self-control;

To realize that little things create quarrels, but in the big things of life we are one;

To stand by each other in weal or woe; success or failure.

To be loyal and conscientious to our school in thought, word, and deed, and to always give her our best efforts.

I believe that each and everyone, in an honest endeavor to fulfill these virtues as students of Woodrow Wilson High School will grow to feel pride and honor in our school, that she may feel pride in us as a student body.

—Written by Helen Seman

AUTOGRAPHS