The Halls of Woodrow

Oh, we love the halls of Woodrow that surround us here today,
And we will not forget tho' we be far, far away.
To the hallow'd halls of Woodrow ev'ry voice will bid farewell,
And shimmer off in twilight like the old vesper bell.
One day a hush will fall,
The footsteps of us all
Will echo down the hall and disappear,
But as we sadly start
Our journeys far apart,
A part of ev'ry heart will linger here
In the sacred halls of Woodrow, where we've lived and learned to know,
That thro' the years we'll see you in the sweet afterglow.
